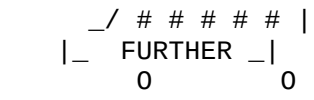
Ugh, sorry. I haven't been eating enough brain sugar.

University of Oregon Special collections wants some of our 'e-correspondence'.

Adam C. wanted to read it too, he was like, eager. "People will really want to see those letters, they could be more instructive than the book"
/just saying/ So.... I have letters going back to April 2011, but I think there are letters as far back as 2009. (I'm just giving them what I have, leaving out about half I think. So I can be done with it.)
There needs to be an arrangement as to terms, I told them not to release for twenty years as a provisional term.


Maybe I don't want any of my correspondence in there. I'd have to know what it is, first. Who is Adam C.?
